

Notice of a Public Meeting

National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP) to be discussed in Saunders County, Nebraska

Saunders County, and city officials, representatives of the Department of Homeland Security's Federal Emergency Management (FEMA), and the Nebraska Department of Natural Resources (DNR), will meet on Tuesday, November 18, 2008, to discuss the Digital Flood Insurance Rate Map (DFIRM) for Saunders County, Nebraska and incorporated areas.

The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) administers the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP). Once a flood prone community enters the insurance program, individual property owners are able to take advantage of a federally subsidized insurance rate in order to protect themselves from loss by flooding.

The meeting, which is open to the public, will begin at 3:30 P.M. at the Saunders County Courthouse, District Court Room located at 433 North Chestnut, Wahoo, NE. Representatives of civic organizations, lending institutions and insurance companies, and owners of real property are encouraged to attend.

Details of the new flood insurance study (FIS), floodplain management and the official FIS appeals process will be discussed. People attending the meeting will have the opportunity to discuss changes in the preliminary flood insurance study and flood insurance rate map.
